Thank you for joining us.
The concept of “wealth in people” encompasses the ways people, persons and personhood are understood to have value. It shows how social systems define equivalency between human value and other value, often in ways that are unspoken, uncomfortable or dangerous. The conference theme examines the continuing importance, but also the limitations and needed extensions of the concept of “wealth in people” for contemporary social scientists.

ALL PAPER SESSION PRESENTATIONS CONSIST OF 20 MINUTES OF SPEAKING AND 20 MINUTES OF DISCUSSION.
