

WELCOME TO THE LANDSCAPES OF VALUE, ECONOMIES OF PLACE GATHER!

This document contains some quick tips for how to use Gather, and a map for the Landscapes of Value, Economies of Place Lightning Talks.

As a reminder, Gather will have full functionality from 5-7pm Eastern / 4-6pm Central, covering our scheduled Lightning Talk and Social Hour time, plus an extra hour each day.

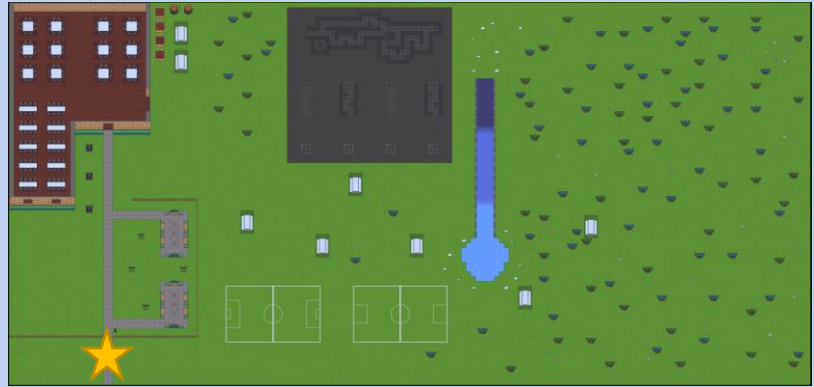

USING GATHER

Joining

- Before joining Gather, be sure leave the Zoom meeting fully
- As you join, make sure you enable your camera and microphone
- Name your avatar using your full name so that others may find you more easily

Getting oriented

- When you arrive, you will initially be located at the bottom/left of the space, as indicated by the yellow star on this map
- You will not be able to see the full space, but you can move around as you choose to explore it
- Keep the chat open to see any announcements from the organizers

Navigating

- Use your up/down/left/right key to move your avatar around the space
- As you approach objects and other participants, options will appear to interact; simply follow those instructions
- Tips: Private spaces are great for small-group conversations; you can search for participants and start chats with them, or approach them in the virtual space

LIGHTNING TALKS

Interacting

- Lightning Talks are available to view any time, but outside of the hours listed at the top of this sheet, functionality may be limited
- Presenters will be available to discuss their lightning talks from 5-6pm Eastern / 4-5pm Central on Thursday
- You can "walk" up to a lightning talk to see its title, or use the reference list below and to the right to find specific talks

1. Eduard Fanthome
2. Rebecca Dudley
3. Matthew Archer
4. Ellen Platts
5. Megan Styles
6. Aneil Tripathy
7. Gebby Keny
8. Christine Jeske
9. Dawn Rivers

